'66

B. Gollis
10/23/93

B. Hollis

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your slave;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breath a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and Sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

1966 MISSILE
BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL
BEDFORD, MASSACHUSSETS

We the class of 1966, with deepest gratitude, dedicate this, our yearbook, to Mr. Frederick Ferry and to Mr. Richard Rancatore through whose guidance and help we have become better individuals and a stronger class.

They might not need me,
but they might,
I'll let my head be just in sight!
A smile as small as mine might be
Precisely their necessity.

Emily Dickinson

DEDICATION

Be a friend. You don't need glory.
 Friendship is a simple story.
 Pass by trifling errors blindly,
 Gaze on honest effort kindly,
 Cheer the youth who's bravely trying,
 Pity him who's sadly sighing;
 Just a little labor spend
 On the duties of a friend.

Edgar A. Guest

"It is the supreme art of the teacher to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge."

Albert Einstein

Let us hope that each student has experienced the joys of personal accomplishment in this high school and that this motivation will extend into all his future educational and vocational pursuits.

John Glenn
Superintendent

To the class of 1966:
It is your intelligence, moral courage, cultural development, and civic responsibility that will continue to make our nation strong.

Dr. Ado Commito
Assistant Superintendent

Secretaries:

Mrs. Dolimount
Mrs. Fitch
Mrs. Andreotti

To the class of 1966:

With few exceptions the men and women who have achieved outstanding success began with no other assets than alertness, willingness, and a determination to make good.

They were different types: country boys, city girls, salesmen, clerks. They made the grade because they had the Will To Win! They put hearts into their work and did their best—always.

Bedford High School has given you its best: guided you, taught you, counseled you. You have the means to succeed. We know you can do it.

Very truly yours,
Edward H. Gillespie

Principal

The pages of this the 1966 Missile are filled with the kaleidoscopic images of friends, classes, achievements, and those wonderful moments that belong to this part of our lives.

Every graduating class is missed, for each class seems to have distinguishing characteristics of its own. We shall follow the careers of the members of the Class of 1966 with pride and a friendly interest.

The 1965 football season is known as the "Year of the Red Carpet." The reason is that every Monday morning after a victory, a red carpet was rolled out by Mr. Whelan to greet the football team when they entered school.

The new season looked hopeful as it started, for there were many old timers back on the team. At first, the team encountered some disappointments, but the girls were determined to do their best. With a great deal of practice, they placed third from the top in the league.

The J. V. Team had a good season this fall, with six wins, three ties, and three loses. The girls were confronted at many games with the problems that some schools had, either no Junior Varsity team or not enough players. At one game, some of Bedford's girls had to play on the opponents' side against their own teammates.

After finishing a hard-fought regular season with a 5-9 record, the team exploded in the Bay State Tournament to earn two straight wins over class C schools, only to lose in the semifinals to St. Mary's of Milford, the team that won the tournament. This brought Bedford's final record to 8-10.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year's Cross Country team surprised everyone. What was to be a building year turned out to be one of the most successful in Bedford's history. The only meet we lost was to Weston.

WINTER TRACK

Coach: Mr. Arthur McManus

After a slow start, losing two of their first three meets, the track team gathered momentum to finish their season with a 3-3 record.

HOCKEY

Coaches: Mr. Ray Mooney

Mr. William Coombs

Although losing most of their games, this year's team was alive with spirit, effort, and action. The skating and checking were, at all times, well worth a trip to Framingham.

Bob Mee was a standout, setting a new scoring record for Bedford, and earning the "Walter Brown Trophy for Most Sportsman-like Player" in the Dual County League.

RIFLE TEAM

This year the rifle team completed its most successful season on record, winning four matches, and losing four. Competing against larger, better-equipped schools, the team showed vast improvement over past seasons. Ten members of the team shot in each match, with each marksman recording scores in both prone and offhand positions. The scores of the top five shooters of each team comprises the total team score, determining the winner of the match.

Coached by Mr. James Burbo, with Paul Gougen acting as student manager, the team compiled the following scores:

In Memory of
Elizabeth Whitcomb

"But when the sun in all his state,
Illumed the eastern skies,
She passed through glory's
 morning gate,
And walked in Paradise."

In Memory of
Pamela Iverson Bearden

One candle's light extinguished
in one breath,
Another's faintly glimmering,
A third's giving off a feeble
light, but steadily
Growing stronger.
Why? Why?
There is no comfort----except---
Except in the realization that there must be there must be
Some reward for the ones who kindled and built
Up the flame to be seen and loved.
The memory of the flame will last much longer than the wax.
And will,
As a brief flame in a dark room,
Be remembered with joy.
